Here are some books that Mrs Ibbotson recommends this half term:

Y5/6 	The Bewitching of Aveline Jones by Phil Hickes "I really enjoyed this sequel to 'The Haunting of Aveline Jones'. It is spooky, mysterious and intriguing throughout - a real page-turner! The next book in the series will be published towards the end of October; one to look out for if you enjoy ghostly stories."
Y3/4 	The Secret School Invasion by Pamela Butchart "This story turns ordinary school life into something extraordinary when Izzy and her friends fear a hostile takeover by some new students. A fast-paced read that will have you laughing out loud!"
Y1/2 	The Friendly Mammoth by Anna Terreros-Martin "This beautifully illustrated book follows Mansi on an adventure to meet animals from the Ice Age and the story carries with it an important message. A book to be explored over and over again."
EYFS 	Five Little Fiends by Sarah Dyer "Follow these cheeky characters as they discover that sharing the joys of nature as a team is much better than going it alone. A funny tale with a deeper meaning."

Holiday Reading

We would love to hear about the books you explore over the holidays - don't forget to tell your teachers or bring your favourite holiday read in to share with the class when we return after half term!

Amazon Wish Lists

Many thanks to those who have donated a book so far.

If you would like, and are able, to support the school and your child's education, please buy one of the books on our Amazon wish lists. This will arrive at school a few days later and be added to the children's class library. The lists have been updated with some new releases now available to purchase for our children to enjoy.
