

Christmas Reading Newsletter

Here are some books that Mrs Ibbotson recommends this half term.

Y5/6

'A Place Called Perfect' by Helena Duggan.

"I couldn't put this book down! It follows the fascinating journey of Violet who moves to a town called Perfect... but perhaps it doesn't live up to its name. All the residents have to wear special glasses and Violet soon discovers that not all is as it seems. A thoroughly spooky, enjoyable read!"

Y3/4

'The Monster in the Lake' by Louie Stowell.

"This is a fast-paced story full of magic, friendship and mystery. Follow Kit the wizard and her two best friends as they embark on a spellbinding quest to save the world."

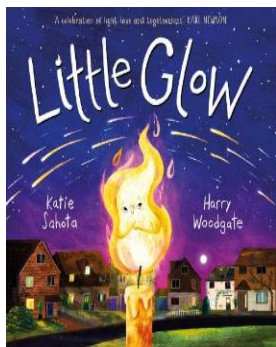

Y1/2

'The Journey Home' by Frann Preston-Gannon.

"This book follows the journey of four brave animals to a new land. It is a wonderful tale of friendship and adventure which carries an important message about looking after our world."

EYFS

'Little Glow' by Harry Woodgate and Katie Sahota.

"This delightful picture book follows Little Glow through a variety of different celebrations including Chinese New Year and Diwali. The children in Maple Class have really enjoyed exploring the illustrations this half term!"

Holiday Reading

We hope you have a fantastic Christmas holiday - we're looking forward to hearing about some of the books you've shared together when we return to school.

Happy Christmas!

Amazon Wish Lists

Many thanks to those who have donated a book so far.

If you would like, and are able, to support the school and your child's education, please buy one of the books on our Amazon wish lists. This will arrive at school a few days later and be added to the children's class library. There are separate lists for EYFS, KS1 and KS2 and the links have been sent out. The lists have been updated with some new releases now available to purchase for our children to enjoy.

New Releases

Look out for the latest Christmas reads!

EYFS	KS1	LKS2	UKS2
Book cover for 'We Disagree About This Tree' by Ross Collins. The cover is red and features a white polar bear and a small mouse next to a Christmas tree.	Book cover for 'The Christmas Department Store' by Maodie Powell-Zuck. The cover shows a white polar bear standing in front of a department store entrance decorated for Christmas.	Book cover for 'The Frost Goblin' by Abi Elphinstone & Fiona Woodcock. The cover is dark blue with a white frost goblin and a girl in a red coat.	Book cover for 'Murder at Snowfall' by Fleur Hitchcock. The cover is blue and white, featuring a girl in a red coat and a snow-covered landscape.

Here are some books we've enjoyed in Year One

Jude recommends 'Kid Christmas' by David Litchfield.

"I like this book because it's full of Christmas things and it's so special. It makes me feel happy."

Wilf recommends 'Tell Me a Dragon' by Jackie Morris.

"I really like this page because it's got polar bears."

Savannah recommends 'Brrrr!... Where did the dinosaurs really go?' by Kes Gray and Nick East.

"I like this book because it's really funny. The dinosaurs have to knit because it's so cold."

