March Reading Challenge!

Congratulations to our February winner... Toby C!

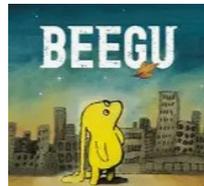

Spring is coming!

Celebrate the start of spring by reading outside... take a picture of yourself reading in the garden, the park or on a day out and send it to school on Dojo

What are we reading in Birch

Class?

In English lessons we have been reading Beegu. The children have enjoyed following the adventures of the little yellow alien!

We love starting our Fridays with a book blanket. Here are some of our reading choices this week.

This year, the children in Reception and KS1 will be taking part in the Spark! Book Awards. We will be reading the shortlisted titles and casting our votes for our favourite read. We are excited to be contributing to a national book award! There have been some fantastic past winners, including 'Who Ate Steve?', 'Wildsmith' and 'The Final Year'.

World Book Day!

It was fantastic to see all the reading activities going on around schools this week to celebrate World Book Day. I loved hearing all about the children's outfits and favourite books!

Mrs Ibbotson's Books of the Month

'The Space Train' by Maudie Powell-Tuck and Karl James Mountford is an engaging, detailed picture book about a boy and his grandmother who discover a long-lost space train. Join them and their hilarious companions, Derek the robot chicken and ToolBot (a grumpy robot) as they set about fixing the space train for intergalactic adventures!

'Dead Good Detectives' by Jenny McLachlan is a hilariously spooky book for 8+ readers. Join Sid and Zen on an epic adventure as they battle to save lost souls!
